BIRDSEED:

- Was not your typical jock as a youngster. In fact, he was on the chess team in junior high and high school. He learned to play from his father and his claim to fame was that he held the number one board in 6th grade for two weeks before he was eventually beaten.
- Along with his cousin, Walter Young (Steelers), Aaron Moorehead (Panthers) and Carey Davis (Steelers), runs the "Deep Threat Football Camp" at Deerfield (IL) HS. For more information on the camp log onto Glew83.com

- Annually provides two scholarships to students at Rich South HS in memory of his friend, Sarah Pikes, who was tragically killed in a car accident. The scholarships are given to students who maintain a 3.0 GPA and participate in three extra-curricular activities

2006 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Posted 24 catches for 348 yds. and a career-high 2 TDs. 20 of his 24 receptions (83.3%) resulted in a 1st down, the highest percentage on the team, and 13 of those occurred on 3rd down
- Caught a career-high 2 TD passes, (45 yds. & 30 yds.), to go along with a career-high 75 yds. vs. GB (10/2/06)

PERSONAL:

- Lives in Deptford, NJ, and Matteson, IL, with his wife, Tamika, and their cocker spaniel, Buddy. Greg and Tamika met in grade school but did not start dating until they were sophomores in high school. She went on to Spellman College in Atlanta to major in sociology
- Grew up on the south side of Chicago before moving to Matteson, with his family. His father, Greg Sr., works for the Manheim Auto Auction while his mother, Willie Ann, was a 4th and 5th grade teacher in the Chicago public school system. His sister, Patricia is married and is a 4th grade teacher
- Attended Rich South HS in Richton Park, IL, where he had his jersey, #8, retired in 2004. Caught 56 passes for 880 yards and 13 TDs during his senior season which concluded with all-conference, all-area, and all-state honors by the Chicago Tribune
- Also lettered in basketball, earning all-area honors as a three-year starter at point guard
- With no scholarship offers, decided to walk on at Illinois because his cousin, Walter Young (a WR with Pittsburgh), was there
- Quit football as a walk-on freshman at Illinois, but was encouraged to return by his roommates, Aaron Moorehead (Panthers) and Young, the next year. "I always felt I was better than those who received scholarships and were drafted into the NFL. It still motivates me to this day."
- An avid fan of his hometown Cubs, he threw out the first pitch at their game on July 15, 2005 vs. the Pittsburgh Pirates. He also sang "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" at Wrigley Field with four Illinois teammates and his former coach, Ron Turner. "I watched the tape and you can tell that I was off key," said Lewis

- Participated in a 2005 Chunky Soup commercial
- Nicknamed “Foots” as a freshman at Illinois because when he ran, his feet moved east and west. Now referred to as “G-Lew” by his Eagle teammates
- While at Illinois, worked on the stadium maintenance crew during the summers
- Enjoys playing internet dominoes, chess and spades on AOL
- Plays on the Eagles offseason basketball team. Focuses on filling the stat sheet with assists, steals and rebounds
- When his football career is over, could see himself getting into coaching or working with an agent in player relations
- Enjoys competing against fellow WR Hank Baskett in bowling

- Enjoys watching reality TV shows such as “Flavor of Love,” “Charm School,” and “Real World-Road Rules Challenge”
- Earned a degree in speech communications
- Full name: Gregory Alan Lewis, Jr.
