A third round draft choice in 2005, speedy Ryan Moats has seen action as a reserve running back and kick returner during his first two NFL seasons.

BIRDSEED:

- Began designing his own line of football cleats and is looking to work with a shoe company to develop his ideas. To date, he has designed two mid-height cleats and one low-height cleat. He put an extra emphasis on designing new ideas for better traction. He is also currently designing digital commercials to use in the presentation of his product line in order to display the vision he has developed. "I want to get into the shoe-making process," said Moats. "I want to be able to make these shoes like old shoemakers used to."
- Well-versed in graphic design and is proficient in the following computer programs: Autodesk Maya, Photoshop, Motion Builder, and Flash. Says his love for graphic design, "makes me look at everything differently...My wife says I'm always dissecting things. Everything I look at, I try to figure out how I would be able to convert it into images."

- During the 2006 offseason, Moats combined his creativity with raw talent in another field, graphic design, as he completed a one-week internship with the graphic design department of EA Sports in Orlando, FL. "I've always been good with computers," said Moats. "I started really getting into graphic design in college. I basically taught it to myself, took a couple of classes, and before I knew it, I was able to do so many different things with these programs. It's amazing."
- After his freshman year in high school, Moats was diagnosed with a staph infection in his right leg before the beginning of the football season. The prognosis was not good. After surgery, Moats was forced to stay home from school for his entire sophomore year. He says he got through the year with the help of his family, his teachers and his coach. After a full year off and months of strenuous rehab, Moats proved everyone wrong when he made his return to the football field as a junior and rushed for over 1,500 yds. and 20 TDs. He later finished his career at Bishop Lynch HS as the school's all-time leading rusher in yards and TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, and in the Dallas suburb of Frisco, TX, in the offseason, with his wife, Tamishia. Tamishia was accepted to the Ph.D. program at the University of Texas-Dallas in the spring of 2007, after completing her masters degree in public administration at Cheyney University. Her Ph.D. will focus on public affairs and she one day would like to become a college professor
- Proposed to Tamishia the day before the Eagles preseason game at Pit. (8/15/05). Moats went on to score a team-high 2 TDs in that game.
- Is the son of Rolinda Moats and Richard Jones. Has two older brothers, Myron and Jason (a former CB at Harding University). His two cousins also are former college football stars, Edward (a CB at Texas Tech) and Brandon (a RB at Texas A&M Commerce). Moats learned to play football with his brothers and cousins in a field behind his grandmother's house in Cliff Oak, TX
- Ran for 2,646 yds. and 33 TDs as a senior at Bishop Lynch HS in Dallas. Finished as the school's all-time leading rusher (4,782 yds. and 56 TDs). First attended Roosevelt HS in Cliff Oak, TX, before transferring

- Full name: Ryan Rockmond Moats. His grandfather, Roland, created his middle name and gave each of Ryan's male cousins their middle names as well.
